ALONG THE BORDER.

Our Relation With Our Mexican Neighbors.

GENERAL STANLEY'S REPORT

Operations of the Army in the Department of Texas—Lawlessness and Shocking Murders in the Territory South of the Southern Pacific Railroad—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Brig. Gen. Stanley, in his report to the war department of the operations of the army under his command, in the department of Texas, has no marked events to record. His soldiers have greatly suffered from fever, which was almost epidemic, but fortunately not a death occurred among his troops. This fever seems to have been occasioned to a great extent by the drouth, which dried up the streams and water holes. In this connection Gen. Stanley says that exchanges of troops into the department of Texas should be made in the fall season so that they can become acclimated before the summer season.

As a rule, he says, the relations with our Mexican neighbors have been friendly and the Mexicans appear to be anxious that no violations of international law should occur, but at times infractions are made by revolutionists crossing the frontier and using the left bank of the Rio Grande as a coign of vantage to scoop down on the Mexican authorities. This occurred in June last when Capt. Steevers captured, on information furnished by the United States consul at Laredo, Gen. Sandoval and a number of revolutionists. At the time of their capture, they were hiding in the high grass along the banks of the Rio Grande, and were all nearly naked, as they were on the point of swimming the river. These prisoners are still in jail awaiting trial.

Attention is directed to the fact that much lawlessness and many shocking murders have occurred in the territory south of the Southern Pacific railroad. In most cases the murderers are Mexicans, who, after committing these crimes, escape to Mexico. While it is a delicate question to determine whether the matter of preventing this lawlessness and crime is a subject for the state police or United States military to handle, Gen. Stanley says he has made arrangements to establish a patrol of the Rio Grande river in hopes of preventing such crimes in the future.

Contrary to popular belief on the subject, government mules in Texas grow old and die, and Gen. Stanley urges that younger and more efficient animals be supplied to replace those now in the service, and to fill the ranks that have become depleted by death.

He notes as a peculiar effect of the climate on the soldier, that now with excellent quarters fever prevails to a great extent among the soldiery, while twenty years ago when they lived in tents, a sick soldier in Texas was a rarity.

Waiting for the New Justice

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Chief Justice Fuller announced in the supreme court of the United States yesterday that the court had decided to wait until Justice Miller's successor had taken his seat before hearing the case of the interstate commerce commission vs. the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company, involving the right of railroad companies to give reduced rates to theatrical companies. The Baltimore and Ohio company allowed rates to theatrical troops and the interstate commerce commission brought the matter into court on the ground that it was a violation of the interstate commerce law. The lower court decided against the commission and the case was carried to the supreme court.

Changes in Circulation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The treasury department's monthly statement of changes in the circulation, issued yesterday, shows a net increase during October past amounting to $24,908. Of the various kinds of money in circulation there were increases as follows: Gold coin $13,438,407; treasury silver notes, $1,360,551; standard silver dollars $2,577,110; subsidiary silver $1,329,812; United States notes $122,027. The decreases were: Gold certificates $19,936,760; National bank notes $1,157,501; silver certificates $1,115,030. The total circulation on Nov. 1, past is placed at $1,498,957,617, against $1,414,121,120, on Nov. 1, 1888, an increase during the past twelve months of $84,836,497.

Will Talk Execration

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—In the supreme court of the United States yesterday the motion made by counsel for the state of New York last week to advance the case of Jujiro, the Japanese under sentence of death by electricity, was granted, and arguments for the third Monday in November after cases previously set for that day have been heard.

Gone Home to Vote.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—In the war, state, navy, and treasury departments and department of justice, 10 per cent. of the clerks or about 20 per cent. of the male clerks are absent to-day, having gone home to vote. In the treasury department alone 750 are absent for that purpose.

Temporary Justice Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Chief Justice Fuller announced in the supreme court of the United States yesterday that the vacancy in the Eighth judicial circuit, caused by the death of Justice Miller, would be filled by Justice Brewer until a new justice is appointed.

Explosion of Dynamite.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 4.—By an explosion of dynamite in Behan's quarry here yesterday, Henry Elson was killed and nine laborers injured.

CAPTAIN ALLEN'S STORY.

He Gives a Graphic Account of the Recent Ocean Disaster.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Capt. John Allen, of the ill-fated coastwise coal schooner Cornelius Hargrave, whose collision with the Spanish passenger steamship Vizcaya off Barnegat Thursday night resulted in the sinking of both ships and the loss of many lives, arrived in the city yesterday. To a United Press reporter Capt. Allen gave a brief story of the great marine disaster and repudiated all reports that he had not done his full duty as the commanding officer of the Hargrave.

When he arrived at the offices of Samuel J. Goucher, 218 Walnut street, there were many friends to greet him. After several minutes of handshaking, the captain of the ill-fated schooner excused himself, stating that he wanted to don some better clothes. When a United Press reporter approached him about the disaster, Capt. Allen said he had read the statement of his first mate Perring in the newspapers, and it was in substance just what he would give as the cause of the disaster.

"I think my first mate's account of the collision is mainly correct," continued he, "but I can't say that I agree with him regarding the action of the Vizcaya's officers. My opinion is that there was not any lookout on the Vizcaya at all. The disaster was due to the carelessness of the officers on the Spanish steamship. Just who was culpable may never be known. So far as I am concerned I adhered to maritime law and did my duty to the letter. If there had been a lookout on the Vizcaya I really don't see how there could have been a collision. We saw the green lights of the steamer several miles away, about a half hour before the disaster occurred. Our red lights, which were in perfect order were burning."

"When Perring informed me a steamer was in sight I went on deck. The steamship was running at twelve knots an hour and we were going along at about seven knots. Being a sailing vessel and on the starboard side, we had the right of way. The steamer pressed down upon us. Feeling that something was wrong, I took an extraordinary precaution of having a torch waved, but the steamer kept bearing down upon us. Then I jumped for the steam whistle and sounded it. Here the Vizcaya people seemed to realize the danger and the steamship's course was changed, but it was too late. Both vessels were so large that neither could veer about in an instant. We struck her amidships. That's how it all happened. It was gross carelessness on board the Vizcaya."

MURDERED BY THIEVES.

Constable Mateer, of Trenton, Pa., Dies Discharging His Duty.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 4.—Constable Harry Mateer, of Trenton, seventeen miles east of this city, was murdered at that place last night by thieves. At 8:30 o'clock three thieves broke into the tailoring establishment of Biehl Brothers in Trenton. They were surprised by the son of one of the proprietors of the store, who gave the alarm and the thieves broke out a side door each with an armful of clothing and ran towards the river.

Constable Mateer was notified of the theft, and with a party of citizens went in pursuit of the robbers. At Peterson, a half mile below this city, Officer Mateer boarded the Blairsville express on the West Pennsylvania railroad to look for the thieves, and as he walked into the smoking car the thieves recognizing him jumped off the train with Mateer after them. He caught one of the men and struck him with a billy. As he did so the thief shot at him, the ball striking one of his pants buttons and causing a slight flesh wound. Mateer pulled his revolver and shot another of the men who came up at this moment, and as he did so he was struck again by a billy and rolled into the ditch.

The third man came up at this time and shot the prostrate officer, the ball striking him at the base of his spinal column, from the effects of which he slowly sank, dying at 10 o'clock. All this happened inside of a minute. The trainmen and some passengers rushed to the rescue of Mateer, when the murderers ran away. They have not yet been captured. Great excitement prevails in Trenton, and search parties are out all along the West Pennsylvania railroad from Allegheny City to Trenton in search of the murderers.

Officer Mateer captured Alex. Killane, who was lately convicted of the murder of Mrs. Paul Rudert.

A Prisoner's Attempt at Suicide.

FINDLAY, O., Nov. 4.—Officer Krouse, of the city police force, was attacked by four roughs while patrolling his beat on Lima avenue Sunday night, and knocked senseless with a stone, after which he was beaten until he was a mass of blood and bruises. His skull was fractured and his injuries are considered fatal. Three of his assailants are under arrest. The officer was attacked simply because he had once arrested the parties for a misdemeanor.

A Prisoner's Attempt at Suicide.

JOIET, Ill., Nov. 4.—The Polack assassin from Braidwood, Joseph Novak under sentence of death, tried to batter his brains out in his cell yesterday during a brief absence of his keeper. A physician was called, who sewed up the wound in the culprit's head and said he would recover.

Death of an Inventor.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—John Scott, the inventor of the locomotive cab, died suddenly of heart disease in a street car here last night. He was born in Philadelphia seventy-one years ago and was of French descent.

Killed in a Runaway.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Jane Brumman, 60 years old, was instantly killed yesterday by falling from a buggy, her head striking the curbstone in a runaway accident.

ON A STEEP GRADE.

An Express Train Crashes Into a Coal Train.

CAUSED BY AN OPEN SWITCH.

The Engineers and Firemen of Both Trains Instantly Killed, Their Bodies Being Buried in the Wreck—The Passengers Fortunately Escape Serious Injury Except One Lady.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The express train that left New York on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad 9 o'clock yesterday morning and was due at 5:35 yesterday evening, while descending the steep grade near Rock Cut, three miles from this city, crashed into a coal train standing on a switch and waiting for the track to be cleared for the passage southward. Both locomotives were completely wrecked and the baggage and mail cars were crushed to pieces.

Of the other cars on the passenger train, four in number, three were thrown from the track, the force of the collision hurling them into a position almost at right angles with the rails. The single Pullman car, which was next to the mail car, kept its place.

Michael Burke, of this city, engineer on the passenger train, and J. W. Doyle, of Great Bend, Pa., engineer on the coal train, were killed outright with their firemen, Jerry Lee, of this city, and Merton Fernan, of Great Bend.

The four men were buried under the wreck. Doyle was dug out immediately by the train hands with the assistance of some of the passengers. The other three bodies remained in the wreck several hours.

As by a miracle, none of the passengers were killed, and only one of them—Mrs. Thomas Corcoran, of No. 21 Myrtle avenue, Buffalo, was seriously injured. Mrs. Corcoran was on her way home from Portland. She had two ribs broken and her right wrist was dislocated. She also sustained severe injuries to her spine, and her left shoulder was badly bruised. She is now at St. Joseph's hospital in this city and her chances of recovery are very doubtful.

Michael Tierney, of Great Bend, Pa., head brakeman on the coal train, was also badly injured. At the time of the collision he was in the cab with Doyle and Fernan, waiting for the passenger train to pass. He was buried in the wreck, but was got out in a few minutes. Tierney was so badly scalded that the skin peeled off from his right side and hip. His face and head were bruised and his right knee was seriously injured. It is thought that he may recover.

A. E. Kimball, of Oswego, N. Y., a brakeman on the passenger train, and W. H. Coppersmith, of the same place, were buried under the baggage car, but neither was seriously injured.

C. C. Darby, of Cortland, N. Y., a postal clerk of Syracuse, president of the State Liquor Dealers' association, sustained slight injuries.

The wildest excitement prevailed for an hour or two after the news of the disaster reached this city, owing to the fact that the railroad authorities telephoned that the cars had caught fire and asked the assistance of the fire department. This information happily proved to be erroneous.

Among the passengers was Henry Weston Edwards, of London, England, the famous traveler who has made the circuit of the globe three times and who accompanied Nellie Bly on a large part of her record breaking journey. Mr. Edwards, who is on his way home from China, left here yesterday evening for New York, where he will take steamer to-morrow afternoon for Europe.

The accident was caused by a misplaced switch. The switchman, it is said, had been in the employ of the company only since Oct. 29.

TWENTY-ROUND FIGHT.

A Rough and Tumble Affair for a Purse of $1,000.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—The fight between the Black Pearl, of this city, and Kelleher, of Boston, for a purse of $1,000, occurred last night at the Twin City Athletic club rooms, and was awarded to the Pearl in the twentieth round. There was very little fighting done. In the first seven rounds not a blow was struck.

In the eighteenth there was a rush made by the Pearl, and in the break away Kelleher claimed the Pearl fouled and seriously injured him in a sensitive part of the body. While bending over he was hit in the stomach. Both fouls were disallowed. In the twentieth the Pearl chased Kelleher around the ring, and hitting him a light blow, Kelleher went down. He was carried to his room and physicians called, who certified to the truth of this condition.

Death of a Noted Horseman.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 4.—William J. Williams, 25 years old, employed at the stock yards, died at 11:30 in Armonedale of the effects of injuries received in a runaway last Saturday evening. Williams was riding a horse on Hickory street near Twelfth. He was run into by a buggy and thrown off his horse. His head struck the curbstone, fracturing his skull. Williams was noted for his daring feats of horsemanship and was at one time a member of Buffalo Bills Wild West show.

Springfield as a Railroad Center.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 4.—Springfield, according to new regime, will be in the very heart of the Big Four system, four divisions coming to their station here. A new time card is to take effect Nov. 18. The train dispatchers of the Cincinnati division are to be moved from Delaware to this city. Springfield is sure to get new shops.

WEARING AN IRON COLLAR.

A Fort Wayne Brakeman Presenting a Peculiar Surgical Case.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Nov. 4.—On July 19 last Henry Breen, of this city, then a brakeman on the Wabash railroad, while coupling cars at Cecil, O., was caught between the steps of the caboose and a saw-log, which extended over a flat car, and his skull was fractured.

For weeks he hovered between life and death, but his strong constitution saved him, and he was finally able to get out, though his skull was cracked in several places. It was also found that the cords of the left eye were paralyzed. This condition grew worse, and two weeks ago Breen went to Springfield, Ill., before the convention of lumbrologists, which was in annual session in that city. They pronounced his case "aneurism of the eye," and the only case on record.

One fracture of his skull just above the eye grew wider and there was danger of a blood vessel bursting, which would cause instant death. By holding the ear to the fracture of his skull one could distinctly hear the pulsations of the brain. Breen was placed under the influence of opiates and an iron collar was placed around his neck, to which is attached a thumb-screw, which was pressed over the orbit to stop the rush of blood.

The physician pronounced his case hopeless. Breen still walks the streets, however, and with his fine physique looks the picture of health. He has had innumerable offers to place himself before medical colleges for examination and study of his remarkable case. It is believed that Breen is the only man alive who wears a collar made in a blacksmith shop.

A DISASTROUS VOYAGE

That of the Restoration From Java to Boston—Fever on Board.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—The iron steamship Restoration hailing from Liverpool, under charter of the Furness line, arrived here Sunday from Java with a cargo of 2,200 tons of sugar. She was two weeks overdue, having been sixty-two days out. At Java fever broke out among her crew, six of whom died. At Port Said six of the crew were sent ashore with fever and at Aden six more were sent to the hospital. A number of Arabs and Chinese were shipped to work the vessel to Boston. They were not thorough sailors, and the ship was handled with difficulty. On Monday last, about 6 p. m., when 200 miles south of Grand Banks the vessel shipped a heavy sea which threw William Hughes, the steward, against the cabin door smashing his leg. The next day gangrene set in. Hughes was taken to the Massachusetts general hospital. He is not expected to live.

A Painter on the Warpath.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 4.—About 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon George Bennett, a painter, shot and fatally wounded John Workhoff, fireman on the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railway. Having emptied his revolver, Bennett walked away reloading as he went. In coming out of the alley where the shooting occurred, he met W. H. Scott, a carpenter, and without a word fired two shots at Scott, one of which took effect in the heart, instantly killing him. Last week some one cut Bennett's brushes to pieces and also ruined some of his clothes. He accused Workhoff of the vandalism, and seeing him walking on the street yesterday snatched up behind and shot him. Bennett was arrested and is now in jail.

Queer Belief of Sioux Indians.

PERRIS, S. Dak., Nov. 4.—A big band of Sioux Indians are camping on Bad river about three miles from here and are preparing for a big Indian dance and pow-wow. An emissary from Standing Rock is among them, having called them together for the purpose of instructing them on the coming of their new Messiah. The Indians are very much excited and expect in a few days that a huge wave of earth thirty feet deep is to pass over the country, which will smother all bad Indians and whites. Allen, an old government scout and one of Buffalo Bill's band, is taking a part in exciting the Indians.

A Cashier Robbed.

BRADFORD, Pa., Nov. 4.—At 6 o'clock last night George E. Allen, cashier of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh road was knocked down and robbed of $500 by an unknown man. Allen was taking the money to the express office. He was met near the freight office by the thief and commanded to "stand and deliver." He refused whereupon the man hit him in the face with the butt end of a revolver knocking him down and escaped with the money.

Players' Ball Meeting Changed.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 4.—Secretary Brunell received a telegram from President McAlpin last night announcing that the annual meeting of the Players' League would be held in Pittsburgh instead of Cincinnati as at first proposed. Mr. Brunell was also instructed to wire the other cities of the change. Charles Anten, of Chicago, was elected a director of the Pittsburgh Players' league club yesterday.

A Traveling Derrick Falls.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 3.—A traveling derrick on a trestle work on the Ohio connecting bridge above Preble avenue, Allegheny, fell yesterday from a height of thirty-five feet. Jerry Anderson, Robert Boyd and James Cosgrove, who were working on the derrick, fell to the ground amid a mass of broken timbers. Two of the men—Boyd and Cosgrove—were badly injured and their death is feared.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Peter Vandell, 12 years old, and Willie Toles, 8 years old, were arrested here for setting fire to the clothing of Mary Pafundi 4 years old causing her death.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress,
HON. THOMAS H. PAYNTER, of Greenup County.

The Election.

The election to-day is remarkably quiet and unexciting.

The bulk of the vote polled this morning in this city was Democratic, and the workers claim that Paynter is way ahead. It is also stated that many Republicans have put in Paynter ballots.

Let the Democrats be on their guard, and poll every vote they can.

Put in every vote you can for Thomas H. Paynter.

Democrats should not stop working to-day until the last vote is polled.

INDICATIONS — "Thomas" "Hurricane" Paynter is sweeping the Ninth Congressional district to-day.

PAYNTER is getting a large vest-pocket vote to-day from the Republicans. At least that's the word that reaches us.

If we are not mistaken, the farmers of the Ninth district will vote almost solidly for Paynter to-day. They know, or ought to know, who their friends are.

The latest from Washington City is that President Harrison with call an extra session of Congress to meet about Nov. 13th. Perhaps he has become convinced that the McKinley bill is ruining his party and wants it repealed at once.

STRAWs show how the current is drifting. The Boston Globe says: "Cheers for Grover Cleveland are not often heard in a Republican mass meeting, but they rang out in Music Hall in answer to Uncle George Hoar's abuse. It was, perhaps, rather impolite to the orator, but they did the business and he discreetly switched off on another topic."

THE Cornob Club of Chicago will no doubt vote the Democratic ticket from top to bottom to-day. It is composed of a number of bankers, journalists and other professional men. It is intended as a protest against the rise in prices of cigars, occasioned by the McKinley Tariff bill, and the only qualification for membership is that those elected must smoke a cornob pipe on the streets in lieu of a cigar.

What Hung Juries Cost the State Last Year.

State Auditor Norman has furnished the Constitution convention some interesting statistics as to the cost of mistrials to the State. He says: Out of the 98 counties reporting, 22 counties had no mistrials during the preceding twelve months, and in the 76 counties the reports aggregate as follows: Courts—Circuit, 68; Criminal, 98; Common Pleas, 35. Total, 201.

"As the column 'Criminal' doubtless included all mistrials of that class, the aggregate, then, to properly present the intention of the resolution, should be: civil 103; criminal, 98. Jefferson County, in five criminal and eight civil mistrials, for the twelve months, makes the largest showing; Warren, in six civil and two criminal, and Clark, in seven civil and one criminal, the next largest showing; Pike, in three civil and four criminal, the next; while four counties come next in the list, each having an aggregate of six mistrials, viz., Allen, Grave, Hardin and Hart."

Commenting on the above the Courier-Journal's correspondent says: "The State pays two dollars a day to each of these twelve jurors in both criminal and civil suits; but in the civil cases, if the money can be made out of him, the successful litigant is taxed four dollars as a jury fee, which is returned to the State Treasury. These small reimbursements to the State are so few that it may practically be said she bears the entire loss of both criminal and civil cases. Taking two days as rather under than over the estimate of the average duration of each hung-jury case, and the dead loss to the State for the preceding twelve months in such criminal mistrials was $4,704; and in civil mistrials $9,648."

Oyster Soup.

Take one thick slice of fat salt pork, cut it into dice like pieces and fry a delicate brown with one small onion sliced thin, then put the whole into a soup-kettle, add one quart of milk, one tablespoonful of flour, one tablespoonful of butter, a little Worcestershire sauce, pepper and salt to suit taste; when it commences to boil add two dozen oysters; serve with sippets of brown bread, fried in butter and sprinkled with lemon juice. —Enquirer.

The Railways

Hon. John D. Harris, a director of the Richmond, Nashville, Irvine and Beattyville, says the road will be completed to Beattyville in the spring, and that the city of the Three Forks will soon take in a tremendous boom and rival Middlesborough. The road is to be extended to Pineville.

The superstition so strongly ingrained into the souls of railway men that where there is one accident there will be three, trifling ones perhaps, but three all the same, has probably a ground work of rationality, inasmuch as one mishap often leads to another. For instance: a comparatively trifling accident delayed the rains involved in the late tunnel disaster on the Cincinnati Southern, and was indirectly the cause of the latter. Now as a direct consequence of the second accident comes the third, the injury of workmen engaged in repairing the tunnel. —Exchange.

A Big Increase in Revenue Collections.

Deputy Collector Wadsworth reports the following as the receipts last month: Tax paid spirit stamps, $21,814.80; Cigar stamps, 1,755.41; Tobacco stamps, 1,221.71; Special tax, 26.60.

Total, $23,918.77.

In October, 1890, the collections at this place amounted to only $9,353.74.

The collections for this district last month are as follows:

Listed, $91.58; Beer, 185.00; Spirits, 107,845.30; Cigars, 1,545.41; Tobacco, 1,221.71; Special taxes, 674.49.

Total, $111,685.12.

From December 1, 1889, to September 30, 1890, $1,681,421.27.

Grand total, $1,793,106.39.

Gain over October, 1889, $1,545.41.

Less than first four months last year, $65,680.45.

One of the Best.

The finest entertainment in the line of minstrelsy ever presented at the Allen was put up last night by Al. Field's company, and Mr. Field surely owes an apology to the newspaper fraternity for presenting an entertainment which they can not speak favorably of without mentioning each artist individually. A column would be required to do justice to last night's show, and Mr. Field himself is entitled to fully one-third of the space. But to summarize: The singing was excellent throughout and the dancing was of the finest order. Billy Van was too funny to mention in a short notice, and the Morrissey brothers were above the standard. The Minzani troupe present one of the most novel as well as meritorious musical acts ever put upon the stage, and the entertainment closes as it began, leaving the impression that it was one of the best ever presented. —Morning News, Jamestown, N. Y. September 16.

At opera house to-morrow night. Don't miss them.

River News.

Falling slowly at this place.

The Sherley had a light trip yesterday and reached here about 3 p. m.

Due up to-night: Sherley for Portsmouth, Telegraph for Pomeroy and Congo for Pittsburg. Down: Bonanza.

The river news in yesterday's issue was put up for last Saturday. That accounts for the mistake in the list of boats due up and down.

The new steamer Congo is advertised to pass up to-night on her maiden trip in the Cincinnati and Pittsburg trade. She takes the place of the Rainbow recently destroyed by fire.

A Deck-hand Drowned.

Logan Bland, a colored deck-hand on the steamer Sherley, was drowned yesterday afternoon at Manchester. A shipment of cattle had been taken on board and Bland who was on the outer guard slipped and fell into the water, drowning before any one could reach him. His body had not been recovered at last accounts. Bland's home was at Augusta.

A NORTH-BOUND K. C. passenger train killed Jim M. Fitzgerald at the railroad bridge near Paris yesterday morning. He had been in jail for ten days, and when released yesterday morning started for his home at the county poor house, walking the railroad track. About twenty years ago Fitzgerald lost both arms by having them cut off by the cars, and has since worn iron hooks for hands and was known as "Jimmie, the Hooks." He is the twelfth man that has been killed at this bridge and one was hung to it by a mob.

This co-partnership makes a family of ten to start out with.

The following card was received in Desha Valley: "W. E. and J. L. Pyles will entertain Wednesday evening, October 29th, at the Buckler House, Madison, Mo. One hundred and twenty invitations were sent out by our young friends, the Messrs. Pyles, and at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening the parlors and sitting rooms of the 'Buckler House' were full of guests. Music was furnished by the Mullikin string band, and the 'light fantastic' was indulged in till 10 o'clock. An elegant luncheon was served, gotten up in a style for which Mrs. Buckler is famous. All the neighboring towns, together with our own village, were represented by our prettiest girls and most gallant boys. Many thanks to our young gentlemen entertainers."

Last Wednesday evening, October 29th, at 7 o'clock, quite a large assembly gathered at the M. E. Church, Sardis, to witness the marriage of N. F. Campbell and Miss Hattie Dill. Standing in front of a perfect bow of dahlias, marigolds and geraniums and all the trimmings of the season the twain were made one by Rev. Dr. Anderson, in a new scriptural and historical ceremony. The young ladies of Sardis were the guests of this charming wedding. The groomsmen and bridesmaids were Burns Trigg and Miss Struve; Wm. Dryden and Miss S. S. Wheeler. The ushers were J. H. Gilsby, Jr., and Sam. Vaughn. Presiding at the organ was Miss Carline Dye, and her rendition of the wedding march by Mendelssohn for the entrance and a retreating procession was very spirited and displayed excellent ability. The ceremony of the wedding party was driven to the home of the groom, where an elegant supper was served.

The crowd was guessed at six hundred, made up of stockmen and leading farmers. An abundance of good food, and a fine dinner and Mrs. Wm. Dye's dinner was relished and complimented. Old vehicles, guns and agricultural implements sold at a discount.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse. Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,479 hds., with receipts for the same period of 808 hds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 129,488 hds. Our market this week is without any new features; the better grades of leaf in good condition continue to sell remarkably high, while the common and flunked grades are relatively very low. A few hogsheads of low grade new tobacco were sold on our market this week, being the first offering of the season. The crop is unusually late in beginning to move.

Is There Nothing New Under the Sun?

A leather Boot, absolutely water-proof and snow-proof, is a thing that would lay claim to such recognition. Were the assertion made that such a thing existed, doubt would arise on all hands and men would say:

Can This Thing Be?

For we have never seen a Boot made of leather that would actually turn both water and snow, and should there be such a thing we would regard it as a boon of great price. We claim to have just that thing; it is

The W. H. Means Waterproof Boot!

It is made on a plan altogether new, and different from anything ever seen in this or any other market. We warrant it to be all we claim for it. They are made of the very best oak-tanned whole stock, and we are selling them so low that every man can afford to have a pair.

As a Matter of Health and comfort you should wear a pair of these Boots that will be a blessing to you through the wet and snow of the coming winter. Remember we warrant them, and will refund the money on every pair not coming up to our representations. Come and see us. We will save you money.

Risky Times.

Many a person's conception of what it means to lean on Providence is as hazy as that of the woman in China, Me, who called on a local insurance agent the other day to inquire about a policy for her house. "Ye see, square," she said, "we haven't had it insured for some time. We've been kinder trustin' in the Lord for better'n seven year, but to my mind in these times it's ter'ble risky." —Lewiston Journal.

JOYFUL MEETING

Of a Brother and Sister Who Had Been Separated From Infancy

There was a joyful meeting at the home of Mr. John Dersch, of this city, a few days ago.

It was the meeting of Mrs. Dersch and her only brother, Thomas T. Lee, after a separation that dated back to their infancy.

Though they have lived within about thirty miles of each other all their life, this was the first time they had the joy and happiness of seeing and knowing each other.

Mr. Lee is nineteen years old and Mrs. Dersch about seventeen. Their mother died when Mrs. Dersch was only a few weeks of age. Mrs. Hull (now Mrs. C. B. Chamberlain of this city), was a near neighbor of the Lee family and the motherless babe was given to her to raise. Young Lee was taken by his half sister to bring up. She is now a Mrs. Deering, and lives near Johnson Junction. The sister and brother thus separated in infancy never met until last Sunday. Mr. Lee learned some time ago that she was married and was living in Maysville. He came down Saturday and was not long in finding her.

Mr. J. Wesley Lee, the clothing merchant, is an uncle of the couple.

A Genuine Musical Treat.

A magnificent audience greeted Professor Heine and his wife and daughter at the First Baptist Church last night. Fully four hundred people were present and they enjoyed a rare musical treat. It was one of the most delightful entertainments given in Maysville for years. Professor Heine's violin playing, Madam Heine's selections on the piano and Miss Heine's singing charmed everybody. They were encored time and again. They are musical geniuses. Professor Heine can get more music out of a little tin whistle than the average performer can get out of a piano, violin or any other instrument.

The entertainment will be repeated to-night, with a change of programme. If you wish to enjoy a genuine musical treat, don't fail to attend. Admission, 25 and 50 cents. No reserved seats. Tickets on sale at W. L. Thomas & Bro.'s store and at Jas. H. Hall's residence.

Here is a card from a few of those who were present last night. Read what they say:

We, the undersigned citizens of Maysville, were present at the concert given at the Baptist Church last night by Professor Heine and his family, and do not hesitate to pronounce it a first-class entertainment in every respect. Those who desire a rare musical treat should not fail to attend to-night.

DR. E. PARIS WHEELER and Mr. Forman Roser are at Edinburgh, Scotland. He writes that they are having a good time and enjoying their trip. The BULLETIN is indebted to him for a copy of the Edinburgh Evening News containing a speech by Gladstone on "Home Rule and the Eight Hours' Bill."

THE entertainment given at the Baptist Church last night by Professor Heine and his wife and daughter surpassed the Strauss concert at Cincinnati last week. Such is the opinion of Maysville people who heard the famous Strauss and who were present last night at the church. The entertainment will be repeated to-night.

THE Clark Circuit Court convened at Winchester yesterday, with the largest criminal docket in the history of the county. There are 24 indictments for murder docketed for trial. These cases are not for offenses committed in the county, however, but are all cases transferred by Judge Lilly from Perry County, and all grew out of the feud which waged for years in Perry County between what are known as the French and Ever-sole factions.

HERE is a little clipping as full of good sense as an egg is of meat. It can be read too often: "If your seat is hard to sit upon, stand up. If a rock rises up before you, roll it away, or climb over it. If you want money, earn it. It takes longer to skin an elephant than it does a mouse, but the skin is worth something. If you want confidence, prove yourself worthy of it. Do not be content with doing what another has done—surpass it. Deserve success, and it will come. The boy was not born a man. The sun does rise like a rocket, or go down like a bullet fired from a gun; slowly and surely it makes its round and never tires. It is as easy to be a leader as a wheel horse."

MINER'S MAXIMS

While the wisdom of being better late than never is quite apparent, much more obvious is the advisability of never being late.

Avoid mysteries.
To the inexperienced eye the religion of the man in the moon is not more mysterious than a pair of shoes. They may cover a multitude of manufacturers' sins, or they may be better than they seem.

Don't be shod in shoddy.
You can avoid it if you will. Miner's sole rule is to misrepresent nothing, and so his sole rules. He does not know whether the man in the moon is an Atheist or a Mormon, but he does know all about shoes, and a pair never leaves his store under false pretenses.

His square-toed shoes are matched by square-toed statements, and his round-toed shoes are encircled by no round-about claims. One thing worth remembering: Whether you pay much or little at Miner's, you receive an equivalent larger in proportion to the amount invested than you can obtain anywhere else.

That's the important point.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.

San Francisco Suffers a Very Heavy Loss.

THE GRAND HOTEL BURNED.

Other Property Adjoining It Destroyed. Making the Total Loss One Million and a Half Dollars—Several People Overcome by Smoke But No Lives Were Lost—Other Fires.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Shortly before 8 o'clock yesterday morning fire was discovered under the Burlington house, adjoining the Grand hotel. In the store occupied by Heuter Brothers & Company, dealers in paints and artists' supplies. The flames spread rapidly throughout the basement of the block bounded by Market, New Montgomery, Stevenson and Second streets, and then spread to the first floor, occupied by the Hall Safe and Lock company; Hill & Goldman, druggists' supplies; board of trade rooms; Pullman Palace Car company's office; Great Northern railroad ticket office, and the rooms of the Syndicate Investment company.

The smoke in the meantime had crossed the inmates of the Grand and the Burlington hotels, and the frightened guests rushed to the sidewalk with what valuables they could carry. The fire soon shot up through the freight elevator in the rear of the Grand hotel, and a disastrous conflagration was looked for. The general alarm brought the remainder of the fire department to the scene. The front of Heuter Brothers & Company's store blew out with a loud explosion and a large volume of smoke poured out, almost overwhelming the firemen.

Jacob Underhill, a wine merchant, was overcome by the smoke in the Grand hotel and was carried out unconscious. Cashier Weeks, of the Grand, who is crippled, was almost overcome when he was assisted out by the elevator boy. There were several other narrow escapes.

By 5 o'clock the fire had spread along the eastern end of the block. The efforts of the firemen to confine the fire within the block occupied by the Burlington and Grand hotels were finally successful. About 6 o'clock the roof of the Burlington fell in, carrying part of that of the Grand, completely wrecking the interior of the Burlington and the front of the Grand on Market street. The western end of the Grand was saved.

The first floor of the Burlington on Second street was occupied by C. H. Vint, millinery and novelties; C. P. Downing, medicines; E. H. Wardwell, window shades. These were gutted, as were also Heuter & Company, the board of trade rooms and the Burr Folding Bed Company's place of business on Market street; the Southern Pacific, the Central Pacific and other ticket offices under the Grand hotel together with Fay's saloon were damaged by water.

The total loss is estimated at $1,500,000. The fire is believed to be due to spontaneous combustion of inflammable materials in Heuter & Company's place of business.

The Grand hotel was opened in 1870 and at the time was considered one of the finest hotels in the world. It was four stories high, and had a frontage of 200 feet on Market street. Two years ago about half of the block was leased to other parties and was called the Burlington hotel.

The Grand hotel bar is badly damaged by smoke and water. The fine collections of minerals and exhibits of the state board of trade is believed to be an entire loss.

Carpet and Rug Mill Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—For the second time in less than six months Samuel W. White's carpet and rug mill at Front street and Columbia avenue was destroyed by fire yesterday. Mr. White's manufactory was burned on June 23, and he was going to resume work last night after having rebuilt, when the mill was again burned.

The fire started in the basement, which was filled with dyed rug and rug carpet yarns, on which the hands were to commence work.

The fire is supposed to have been due to spontaneous combustion. That portion of the mill which was burned was used for making carpet. About seventy-five men and women were employed there. All escaped without difficulty.

The loss will be between $75,000 and $100,000; insurance not ascertained.

Boarding House Destroyed.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 4.—At 4 o'clock this morning the big double boarding house, at Ninth and Oak street, was burned and Samuel Lartin was fatally injured. Loss $5,000.

A Brakeman's Fatal Fall.

WABASH, Ind., Nov. 4.—Frank Callaway, a brakeman in the employ of the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan railroad, met with an accident which will result in his death. He was standing upon the top of a box car, passing over the Wabash river bridge, and, losing his balance, fell to the bed of the river, a distance of thirty-five feet. For an hour he was unconscious, lying with half his body in the water. Partially recovering, he called for help, and another brakeman came to the rescue. One of Callaway's legs is broken, and he was horribly cut and bruised, suffering internal injuries. He is still alive, but will die.

A Well-Filled Pot.

Whom It Will Elect and What Issues Determine.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—In addition to the congressional issues of the campaign which will determine the complexion of the next house, constitutional questions will be voted on in many of the states. BUD MCCOY SLAIN.

Eighteen Bullets Found in His Body. Had Killed Eight Men.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 4.—Bud McCoy, leader of the notorious McCoy gang, was killed near Lewis Camp, Logan county, on the extension of the Norfolk and Western railroad Friday evening by a man named Dempsey. Eighteen bullets were found in his body, and other parties are supposed to have assisted in the killing.

McCoy had collected considerable money from Contractor Lewis, and was returning to his home on Peter's creek. Excitement is high, and it is believed Dempsey and associates will be captured, and summary justice dealt out. McCoy is known to have killed eight men, but always escaped punishment.

Not All Settled.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—President Choate, of the Old Colony road, says the report that the damage claims of the Louisville, Ky., people injured in the accident near Quincy have been compromised for $75,000 is untrue. Mr. Choate says only two of the Louisville claims have been settled, that of Judge Edwards, and that of colored nurse.
